The stone house stood tall above the black water. Smoke was rising from one of the chimneys. He must be home, thought Susie. She approached quietly. She didn't want the old man to hear her. She was frightened.

The town children said the old man was crazy. He lived alone and never came to town. All the things he needed were delivered. They said he caught wild animals and ate them. Some of the older children said that he ate pets, too.

Susie was worried about what had happened to her dog, Bess. She thought the old man must have caught Bess. The dog had been missing from the farm since yesterday. And that was not normal. Bess never wanted to leave the farm. For Bess loved to stay with her. She thought Bess must have been dognapped. It was the only answer.

Susie walked slowly to the house and then she looked in the house. It was very quiet. Bess was there, in front of the fire. Bess was sleeping peacefully. Her leg was wrapped in a white cloth. There was a dish of water and dog food. The old man was sitting in a rocking chair reading books quietly.

(注) chimney : 煙突      frightened : おびえた      dognap : 犬を盗む

1. Where was Bess?

- B. Had the old man eaten Bess?
- C. What had happened to Bess?
- D. What had the old man done?

4. What did Susie think to see before she looked in the window?

- A. The old man was eating dinner.
- B. Bess was sleeping quietly.
- C. There was a room with no one.
- D. Bess was in trouble.

【E】 次の英文を読んであとの設問に答えなさい。

Family Picnic

Lina was excited! She was going to join her Host Family on a picnic tomorrow. Her Host Mother asked her what food she liked. Lina said that she liked most foods, but didn't like Vegemite. Her Host Mother said that she also didn't like it.

The next morning everyone got up early. Lina's Host Father got the car ready while the others helped with the food. They made lots of egg sandwiches, a fruit salad and a carrot cake. Lina's Host Brother filled ①“flasks” of hot water so they could have tea and coffee too.

They left home at nine o'clock and got to the picnic area at ten thirty. It was a beautiful place. There were lots of tall trees and a river. ②It was very quiet and peaceful. Nobody else was there. Lina's Host Father and Host Brother played soccer on the grass while Lina and her Host Mother walked along the riverside.

At noon they all had lunch. The sandwiches were delicious but Lina didn't like the fruit salad. It was too sweet. Suddenly dark, stormy clouds came in and it started to rain! They quickly packed everything away and entered the car. Lina felt sad because she had been enjoying the picnic. But, her Host Father switched on the radio and made tea and coffee, while her Host Mother served the carrot cake. It was Lina's favorite!

The weather was bad, but she had a wonderful time. She would never forget the smell of the eucalyptus trees, the sound of birds and feeling ③“cosy” in the car.

That night she wrote about it in her diary. ④It was her best memory of Australia.

(注) Vegemite : ベジマイト (パンに塗る野菜エキスのペースト) eucalyptus : ユーカリ
