[B] 次の英文を読んであとの設問に答えなさい。

Grace Walker was a 7-year-old girl. She lived in a quiet small town called Henderson with lots of friends and a happy life. Although Grace felt happy and loved, there was something bothering her. Everyone seemed to know exactly what they wanted to be when they were older. Unlike Grace's friends who loved to play with dolls and bake muffins in pink dresses, Grace was always outside playing in mud and clearing snow with her toy truck.

① Henderson Elementary School holds an annual career fair. During this day children hear from adults about many different careers. They heard from doctors, were able to hold rabbits that came in with the local animal doctor, they met a Senator running for election and a librarian who told everyone how she was born holding a book! But Grace had no inspiration at all.

That evening Grace was very quiet at the dinner table. ② Her mom [asked / her / was / was / worried and / what / wrong]. Grace began to cry as she was talking to her mother about her future and career. Grace has always dreamed of becoming a firefighter, helping others and being a hero to families in situations of despair. When she told her friends, they laughed because a girl can't be a 'fireman'. Grace's mom smiled and hugged her.

She ran a quick search with her laptop and placed it in front of Grace. As Grace looked up with tears running down her face, she saw the screen. There was a beautiful, smiling female firefighter accepting a medal from the Mayor of Henderson for her bravery during a terrible car accident on the highway road last year. In ③ the photo she is holding one of the little girls she helped out of the school bus. Grace couldn't believe it. Grace's Mom suggested they contact the hero firefighter online. Grace sat and waited hoping for a reply! They were very excited when a reply flashed up a few minutes later. Constance Baker was her inspiration, finally. She continued to read Constance's blog and followed her daily. Constance even suggested Grace join an activity club on the weekend to learn outdoor skills and training.

That summer Grace celebrated her birthday with a garden party with all her friends. When it was time to bring out the cake Grace was told to close her eyes. Suddenly they heard loud sirens coming closer and louder by the second. When she opened her eyes Constance in her full uniform and helmet was holding her cake and the rest of the firefighting crew were around the fire truck. Grace's friends and family were shouting with joy and lining up to ride in the fire truck and take pictures wearing the helmets. ④ This was the best birthday Grace could ever have. Being able to see her hero in person made Grace more motivated to chase her dream.

【C】 次の英文を読んであとの設問に答えなさい。

What do you do when you read a really good book? You want to tell people about it. You tell them they should read it. Maybe you know how hard it can be not to talk about a good book to a friend who has not read the book yet. You want to tell your friend what the book is about, but you do not want to ruin it by saying too much. If you love to talk about good books, it is a good idea to join a book club. But it's important to choose one that matches you.

One of the great things is in a book club, everyone decides together on a book to read. Then everyone reads it at the same speed. When everyone has finished the book, you can get together and discuss it. This way, everyone has read the book, so you do not have to worry about saying too much. There's no need to worry about spoiling the story, or not understanding the conversations. Another great thing about a book club is that you can hear different people's way of thinking also known as point of view. You might think about something in the story that you had not thought about. The way people understand stories is often different between each person. Joining a book club is a great way to meet new people with many ways of thinking.

But, it's important to join a book club that has similar interests to you. Being in a club with similar types of book interests is important. If you aren't interested in the book that is being discussed, you won't enjoy it. Also, making sure that everyone reads at the same speed as you (あ) do. If everyone reads at a different pace, you won't want to go to the meetings because you haven't finished the book yet. Having a group of people who enjoy similar books makes reading more enjoyable.
